STEVE MOORE

CEO Emeritus, M.J. Murdock Charitable Trust

Steve Moore served as the CEO/Executive Director of the M.J. Murdock Charitable Trust for 16 years. Over the course of Steve's tenure, the Trust surpassed the $1 Billion mark in grants awarded across five states in the Northwest, including Idaho. Now, as CEO

Emeritus, Steve continues to support the work of the Trust as it seeks to nurture and enrich the education, spiritual, cultural and social life of those within the Pacific Northwest.

Steve is an inspirational speaker, thought leader and widely published author. Throughout his career, Steve stands at the intersection of faith, the marketplace and the public square, serving in leadership and board roles regionally and nationally. Educated widely, Steve is an alumnus of McMurry University, Asbury Theological Seminary, St. Andrews University, and the University of Michigan. He has been a visiting scholar at Oxford University and Baylor University.

Prior to serving the Murdock Trust, Steve served as Vice President of Seattle Pacific University, Senior Vice President of Asbury Theological Seminary, and President of the Asbury Foundation. Steve and his wife Thanne, a speech pathologist, have three children.

The Idaho State Prayer Breakfast is a state version of the National Prayer Breakfast, held annually in Washington, D.C. The Idaho Breakfast, inaugurated over 60 years ago, is presented by a volunteer committee to encouraging the spiritual lives and deepening the moral fiber of the people of Idaho through God's leadership.

Purchase a table of ten for yourself, your business, your church, or other organization. Tickets are mailed ten days before the event. Payment must accompany your reservation. Seating is assigned on a first-received basis. Those wishing to sit together must submit reservation and payment together. Tickets purchases within two weeks of the event will be available at the Will Call table in the Boise Centre Foyer immediately prior to the breakfast. Please plan to be seated by 7:45 a.m.

We look forward to gathering in unity in the Spirit of Jesus, regardless of religious tradition or political preference, to lift up those who lead and serve within the Great State of Idaho. Please consider inviting youth from our community as your guests. Donations toward complimentary tickets for youth and military are greatly appreciated.

RESPONSE BY

THE HONORABLE BRAD LITTLE

GOVERNOR OF THE GREAT STATE OF IDAHO
